

Extrait du Office for Science & Technology at the Embassy of France in the United States

<http://www.france-science.org/France-Stanford-2015-2016-call-for,2799.html>

France-Stanford : 2015-2016 call for proposals

- Homepage : English - Mobility & Research funding - Open Calls for Proposals -

Date de mise en ligne : Monday October 20, 2014

Description :

The France-Stanford Center for Interdisciplinary Studies, founded in partnership with the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, aims to bridge the disciplines of the Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, Engineering, Business and Law, addressing historical and contemporary issues of significance for France and the United States from a broad range of perspectives.

Office for Science & Technology at the Embassy of France in the United States

The France-Stanford Center for Interdisciplinary Studies, founded in partnership with the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, aims to bridge the disciplines of the Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, Engineering, Business and Law, addressing historical and contemporary issues of significance for France and the United States from a broad range of perspectives.

The Center brings faculty and students from across Stanford's departments and schools together and into contact with colleagues in France, to explore issues of common intellectual concern, to advance collaborative research, and to foster interdisciplinary inquiry.

The France-Stanford Center sponsors high quality collaborative research projects likely to foster new linkages and deepen existing connections between French scholars and students and their counterparts at Stanford University.

► FSCIS Collaborative Projects - Deadline: March 16, 2015

The France-Stanford Center seeks to fund research projects across all disciplines. Priority will be given to projects with the potential to develop new collaborations involving junior researchers, and to those leading to collaborative work on interdisciplinary issues.

http://francestanford.stanford.edu/collaborative_projects

The France-Stanford Center for Interdisciplinary Studies also offers three fellowships:

► FSCIS Undergraduate Fellowship (June 2015 - August 2016) - Deadline: February 17, 2015

Applicants for the Undergraduate Fellowship Program must be Stanford undergraduate students. The FSCIS Undergraduate Fellowships are intended to fund those undergrads interested in undertaking research or pursuing an internship at a French institution (including universities, non-governmental organizations, and corporations).

<http://francestanford.stanford.edu/fellowships/undergraduate>

► FSCIS Visiting Student Researcher Fellowship - Deadline: March 16, 2015

Visiting Student Researcher Fellowships are available to French graduate students interested in pursuing a course of research at Stanford, or to Stanford graduate students interested in undertaking research or pursuing an internship at a French institution.

http://francestanford.stanford.edu/fellowships/visiting_student_researcher

► FSCIS Visiting Junior Scholar Fellowship - Deadline: March 16, 2015

Fellowships are available to French scholars interested in pursuing a course of research at Stanford, or to Stanford scholars interested in undertaking research or pursuing an internship at a French institution

http://francestanford.stanford.edu/fellowships/visiting_junior_scholar

More information at <http://francestanford.stanford.edu/>